

RSD

ROCK SURF & DEEP

Offering readers the very best of angling, including reviews of the latest products, innovations and exciting fishing locations. The Destinations section covers SA shores right up to the coast of West Africa, and the archipelagos of the Indian Ocean. RSD is sold at selected Pick n Pay outlets, Shoprite, Checkers, Spar and OK Food stores as well as at Sasol, Engen and Total garages. Also available at news agencies, tackle stores and local and international airports, as far as Namibia.

Rock and Surf focuses on all aspects of salt water angling, including reviews of new equipment and established brands. The Destinations section covers a wide range of different areas in each edition, providing important information and interesting features on specific lodges and species angling.

Off Shore takes a look at boating – and here we feature new vessels and tackle tests to aid the angler with product-related queries.

Jet- and paddle-ski is a product-related section centred around a different style of angling that is taking our country by a storm!

Drop-shot, vertical jigging and plugging offers detailed information on imported and locally manufactured products.
